

Art @ The Station Launch

Ascot Station

14th December 2018

THE ARTS
SOCIETY
WEST SURREY
AREA

www.theartsocietywestsurrey.org

The art works waiting to be unveiled

Parents and pupils from the Marist Early Years arrive at the station

Eloise Volschenk greets one of the contributing artists from the Marist School

Eloise Volschenk, project organiser, addresses the pupils, parents, teachers, committee members, representatives from the West Surrey Area Committee and representatives from Barclay Interiors

Parents, pupils and Staff of the Marist Early Years and committee members of the Arts Society Ascot

Mrs Bennett, Art teacher from the Marist Schools with Oriental Scrolls by Year 7 pupils

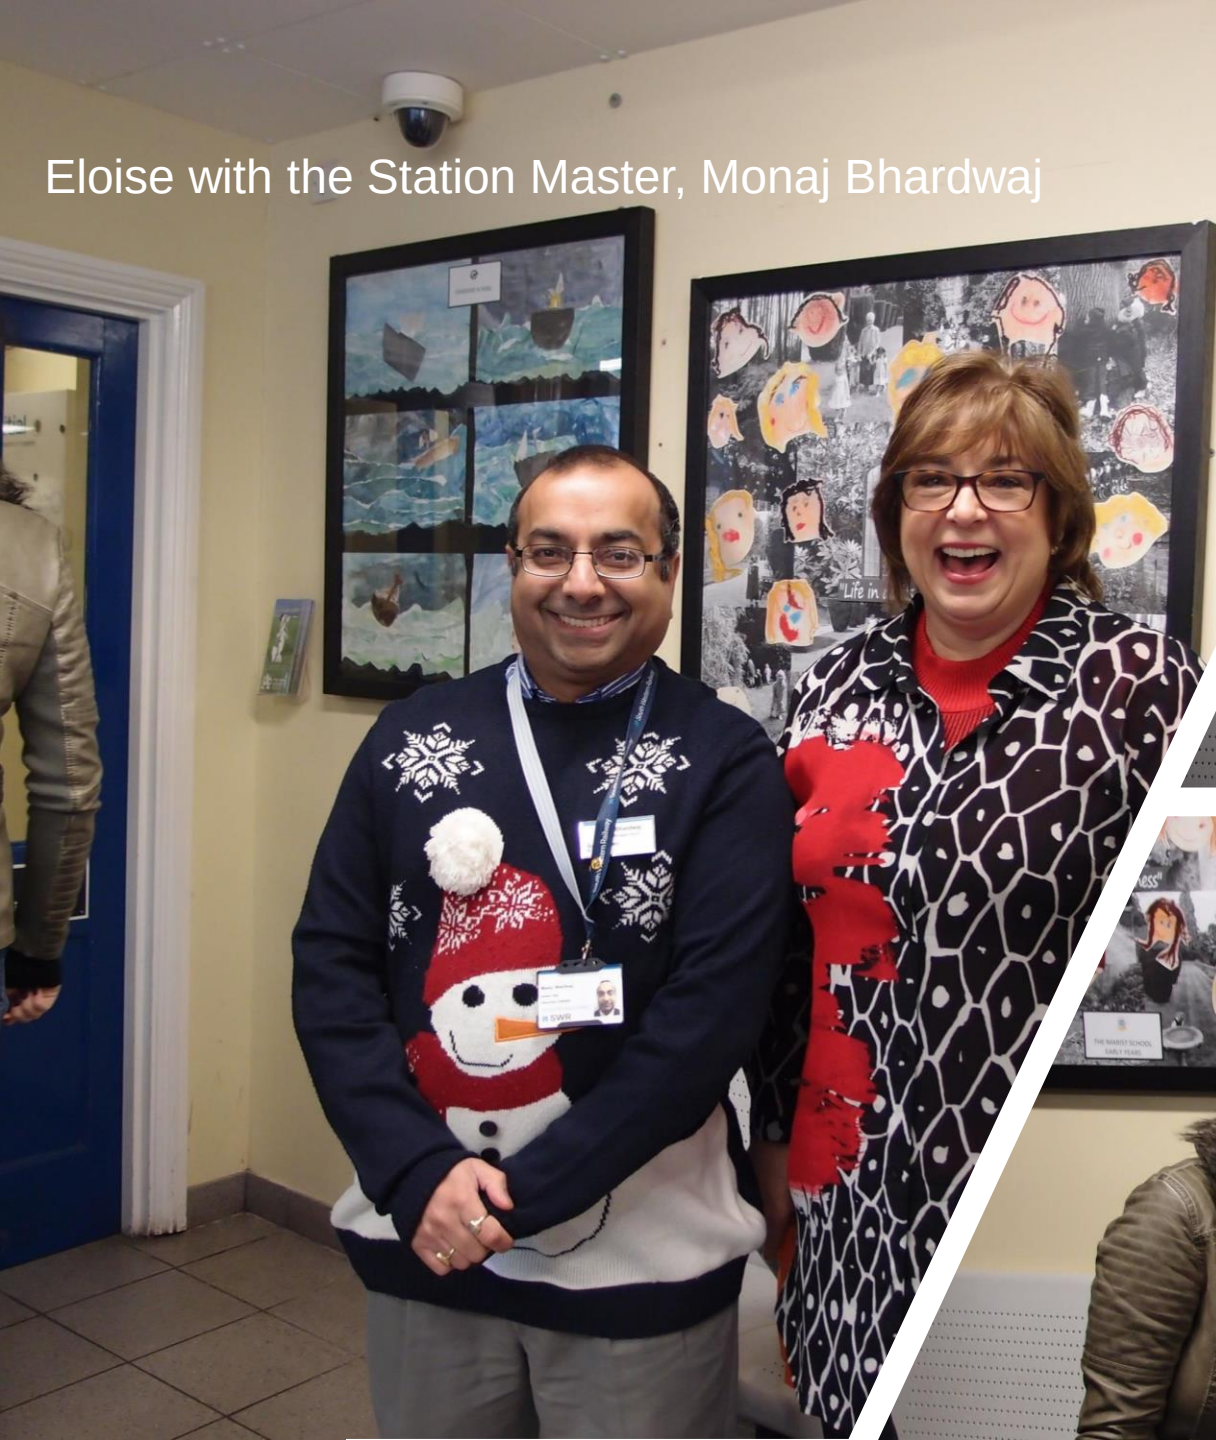

Rosemary Goulbourn, founder of The Arts Society Ascot, unveils the Cheapside School frame with Megan Loughborough of Barclay Interiors, sponsors of the exhibition.

The girls from the Marist Early Years look for their self-portraits

Eloise with the Station Master, Monaj Bhardwaj

Megan Loughborough and Sarah Barclay from Barclay Interiors unveil the LVS frame

LVS pupils aged 8 to 11 created Autumn Landscapes using watercolour

Cheapside School pupils aged 6 to 7 created collages inspired by the seascapes of JMW Turner

Marist Early Years pupils aged 3 to 5 created self-portraits using oil pastels and wool. These were mounted on a collage of photographs of the outdoor spaces at their school.

The Ascot Station Waiting Room transformed into an Art Gallery!