

THE ARTS SOCIETY ASCOT

ART @ THE STATION - CORONATION ART WORKSHOP

26TH APRIL 2023

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Eloise Volschenk helps the Rail Community Officer to embellish her helmet

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Packed lunches and snacks for the children

Eloise Volschenk from The Arts Society Ascot greets the Year 3 Class from South Ascot Village School

A welcome from Teresa Pearson, Station Master, Ascot Station

The children are given their bags with trinket boxes, ready to be painted

Eloise demonstrates how the trinket boxes should be painted

The children set about choosing their colours and start painting the pots and lids, and the adults soon join in

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Cllr Christine Bateson, Mayor of The Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead with Eloise Volschenk and Isabel Dyke from The Arts Society Ascot

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Cllr Christine Bateson, with Matthew Evans, Senior Stakeholder & Public Affairs Manager for SWR and Rail Community Officer SWR

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Teresa Pearson, Station Manager, Ascot Station and Alex Foulds, Major Projects Director SWR

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Ascot station employee with Sandy Mohan, Community Rail Line Officer, Windsor to Reading

The Mayor looks on as the children paint their boxes

The trinket boxes completed

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

The children tuck into their lunches

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Eloise explains the next activity – making
Coronation Crowns

She demonstrates how to assemble the pre-cut crowns

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye

Before assembly, the crowns need to be embellished with jewels

Even the grown-ups got to have crowns!

The finishing touches are added...

...and Eloise gives her seal of approval

A final Hurrah at the end of memorable afternoon of fun and creativity

© Digby Oldridge/PR Eye